

CJ 232 : Administration of Justice

For criminal justice students or laymen; designed to broaden the understanding of the student concerning the various agencies involved in the administration of criminal law. Emphasis is placed upon the more important law-enforcement functions and interrelationships from arrest to executive pardon. (S)

Credits 3

Component

LEC