

EMS 203 : Pharmacology II

This is the second of a two-part course that prepares the students for the objectives associated with pharmacology in the pre-hospital setting. Students will learn advanced pathophysiological effects of drugs on the body and medications associated with advanced treatment modalities. (F)

Credits 2

Component

LEC