

EMS 207 : Special Populations in EMS

This course prepares the paramedic student to identify, assess, manage, and treat age related emergencies, and other special patient population challenges. This course also introduces the paramedic student to the breadth of teamwork with fellow healthcare, first responder, and public safety entities. (S)

Credits 2

Component

LEC