

FYE 101 : Science of Success

This is a practical one-credit course that provides the tools and skills necessary to get a strong start with the transition for new students at NDSCS. This course will introduce the students to campus resources, policies and procedures and cover topics such as time management, study skills, goal setting, wellness, financial literacy, and professional development. (F, S, O)

Credits 1

Component

LEC