

MSYS 103 : Math for Mechanical Systems Technicians

A basic math course with emphasis on development of useful skills in layout, measurement and computation of pipe lengths and fitting allowances, as well as a study of elevation, grade and volumes as it pertains to the trades.

(F)

Credits 3

Component

LEC