

POLS 116 : State and Local Government

Structures, politics and behavior in states and local governments. A general survey of American state and local government and politics. Topics include operations, finances, types of political subdivisions, city government, county government and relations between local and state governments. (F, S) ND:SS

Credits 3

Component

LEC