

Excess Load

To enroll for more than 20 credits during any semester, a student must have a grade-point average of 3.0 or better and file a request for excess load at the Student Success Center in Old Main, except where more than 20 hours are required in a specific curriculum.

A request for excess load must be approved by both the student's advisor and an academic counselor.