

Grade Change

In the event a grade is recorded incorrectly, a change must be made by the instructor no later than the conclusion of the semester immediately following the semester in which the grade was issued, excluding the summer sessions.