

Repeating Courses

When a course in which a student has previously received a grade is repeated, both grades show on the permanent record, but only the last grade received is used in the grade-point average.