

General Information

The NDSCS Division for Workforce Affairs is focused on providing comprehensive solutions to meet the workforce needs of both North Dakota and the Red River Valley. We provide customized training for business and organizations, as well as open-enrollment training for individuals. We also offer apprenticeship programs and skills classes for the under/ unemployed and New American populations. The three areas that make up the Division for Workforce Affairs include TrainND, ApprenticeshipND and SkillsND.